August 4: The World of Dreams. Rev. Dr. Jeanne Foster. Psychiatrist D. W. Winnicott writes that we often go about our lives with an attitude of compliance, as though the world is something to be fitted in with, demanding adaptation. The attitude of compliance tells us to put our dreams away in the back of the bottom drawer of the chest of drawers. But our dreams are part of creative living, Winnicott says, which makes life worthwhile. On this Sunday, we stand up for the world of dreams and for pulling dreams through into reality as a source of creativity, aliveness, and self-actualization.

August 11: TBD.

August 18: Readers Theater War and Peace. Written by pulpit guest and member Al Murdach. Have you ever seen fireworks at a UU General Assembly? Come back with us to 1917 when pro-war and anti-war Unitarians, played by our stellar Starr King players, were duking it out. Who do you think won? Join us on Sunday to find out.

August 25: Circle Dance. Maureen Atkins. Come join us in the dance. Pulpit guest Maureen Atkins will lead everyone in this service of circle dancing for all ages. Come prepared to move, dance and have fun. All dances will be taught beforehand. Older children are more than welcome to participate.

September 1: Protest, Resistance, and Empowerment. Bob Britton. Join us for our annual Labor Day Sunday Service. We will lift our spirits with the poetry and music of liberation that inspires us in our struggle to stop the growth of hate and empowers us to promote a world where compassion is wedded to power.

Presidential Flamingos Are Doing Fine!

I'm pleased to announce that the pair of pink flamingos (plastic statues) that were recently relocated to my front yard are adjusting well and seem very much at home. What, you might be asking, do pink flamingos have to do with our Board of Trustees? Good question! Apparently, it is a long standing tradition for the president of the Board of Trustees to be offered a pair of pink flamingos for their front yard during her or his term. This was an interesting surprise to me! But, honoring my playful side, I readily agreed to be the new owner, and Will Fitch ceremoniously handed them over to me.

The history of this humorous practice of passing on pink flamingos is somewhat murky but I know that Karen Cook, when she was president, had a distinct aversion to plastic pink flamingos in her yard so the Board bought her a welcome mat for her front porch with a tasteful flamingo on it. And, according to Diana Dickerson (Board president 2015 to 2017), she still has three in her yard. Plans are to add at least one more should her husband and our current vice president, Roy, be elected to president in 2021. The more the merrier! Believe it or not, a group of flamingos is called a flamboyance. Seems appropriate to me!

As for Board updates, our next meeting will be held Thursday, August 1 from 7 to 9pm in the sanctuary. All are welcome, and we'd love to have you visit us! Board agenda items will include an update on the Appreciate Inquiry strategic visioning process, discussing our budget and future planning, revisiting the brightening of the sanctuary, and welcoming our three new Board members— Zelma, Ethel-May, and Mary Swain.

Those are the bits from your board this month!

Envisioning Our Future

Sunday, September 29, 2019 from 12:15 pm to 2:15 pm in the Sanctuary

Envisioning our Future

Earlier this year, members of the Starr King community met to share our values, the times when Starr King was at its best and what we dream about for our future. Our visioning was designed to help us Discover “our best moments” and to Dream about our desired future. The assumptions of our planning process are:

- All the wisdom and skills needed to assess the past and present and to envision the future we want to create were in the room.
- There are many "right" pathways to reach a given point or end result.
- None of us has all the answers; we need each other's perspective of reality to get a better understanding of the whole.
- The future doesn't just happen. It results in large part from what we do or don't do today and every day.

You gave the Envisioning Team a lot of information to review and synthesize. In fact, you gave us 4,207 words! We will ask you to

- ❖ Review the values that SKUUC members said guide us as Unitarian Universalists. While we use the UU Seven Principles as guides, many come from other faith traditions or no faith tradition and have other language for values that resonates with them. Language matters. We'll ask you to review the numerous values you named and to identify those that most resonate with those that will serve as a guide or compass as we, as a spiritual community, choose the priorities for our ministry for the next two to three years.
- ❖ Review your Dreams in the following areas and choose your highest priorities:

- Building a Better World. Working for justice, equity, and compassion in human affairs through prophetic witness and action.
- Caring Community. The warmth and care of our beloved community is one of our greatest strengths Caring Community
- Family Ministry and RE. Supporting our families and our children is a vital part of our mission. Adult RE – lifelong learning — is also a vibrant part of our mission. Learning keeps us alive, responsive, engaged.
- Worship is the single most important thing we do together. It's what distinguishes us from a support group, a social club, or a political action group. It's what makes us a church.

Each one of us

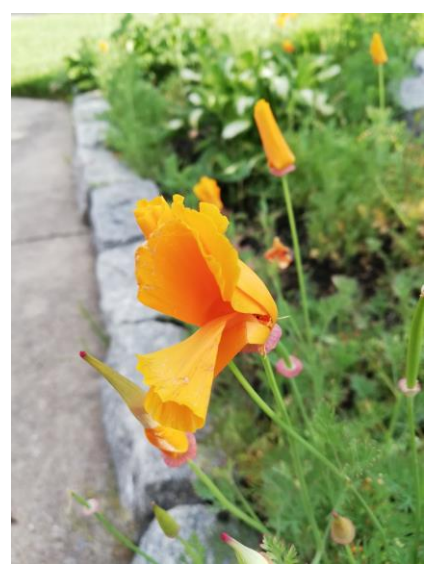

- Can make a difference;
- Learn from each other;
- Pool our perceptions, and
- Join together to create our future

Even if you were not able to attend the earlier session, please join us on this important day in the life of our Beloved Community. Join Us!

Your Envisioning Team –Jennifer Koney, Beth Ogilvie, Teri Owen, Keith Lewis, Mileva Saulo Lewis, and the Rev. Dr. Maria Cristina Vlassidis Burgoa.

RE Reflections, June 2019

Our RE Program

Are you looking for a church home for your children that provides them with the resources to develop their own spiritual values? We warmly invite you to check out our Sunday Religious Exploration classes for school-age children. Our primary resource is the Tapestry of Faith program from the Unitarian Universalist Association. It's not classwork! Our RE team engages our younger members in discussion, crafts, music, gardening, scientific experiments, field trips, service projects, and more. We have a lot of fun and some deep conversations.

Our program offers:

- a friendly, open, and accepting environment
- truth-seeking, spirituality, and progressive moral values
- deeper understanding of world religions
- reason, creativity, and autonomy rather than a rigid approach
- sensitivity and humor about the difficult questions of life and growing up
- participation in environmentalism and social justice projects

Adult Religious Exploration

Our Adult Religious Education Programs provide opportunities to explore, reflect, and learn in a nurturing spiritual community. Our Adult Religious Education Committee develops programs based on congregational needs and interests. They vary in length from a single session to some that last weeks or months. We share upcoming programs in our weekly announcements and newsletter, as events on the website, and on our Facebook page. You'll learn a lot and meet lovely people! Please send your suggestions for future topics to the committee. Or, even better, come to a meeting! We are always looking for new ideas.

Adults are also invited to make use of our lending library. It's a small collection of books about religion, spirituality, and Unitarian Universalist history. You can check out these books on the honor system. You'll find it in the library section of the Fellowship Hall. Look for the plaque.

Starr King Circle Dinner at PLaYT in Hayward (B Street) in July was a lot of fun. The food was great and the company was fabulous! Join us next time!
